"This is a wine that I've had the pleasure of enjoying many times since its release and one that offers fantastically rich yet not excessively ripe fruit and flavors with excellent density, concentration and superb length. The breadth of flavors and incredible texture here is outstanding and the wine offers stunning overall quality...93." Burghound, Issue 4.

SEGUIN MANUEL

Seguin Manuel has been around literally for a couple of centuries, having been founded in its present form and name in 1872, though the original founder dates to 1788. The firm initially expanded through the purchase of Maison Roux-Lambert. As far as I know, the present director is Pierre Seguin, who took over in 1950. One of the famous aspects of an old part of the estate is an inscription dating from 1772, apparently carved by a Cistercian monk in Latin that reads (If I remember well): "...there are 5 reasons for drinking: the arrival of the guest, present thirst and future thirst, as well as the quality of the wine and any other reason you please!"

It is mostly a negociant operation based in Savigny-les-Beaune though they do own 1 ha of Savigny "Lavieres" plus another couple hectares of villages, mostly in Les Godeaux for a total of 3.5 ha.

DOMAINE ROUMIER

For Chambolles with a difference – wines which are substantial, even sturdy, as well as velvety and elegant – the best source is the Roumier domaine...This is one of the longest-established estate-bottling domaines in the Cote d'Or, and one of the very best of all.

We don't make Pinot Noir,' Christophe Roumier is quoted as saying (The Great Domains of Burgundy, Remington Norman), 'we make wines from terroir which expresses itself through Pinot Noir'...but it is a question of control rather than creativity. The creation is being done by the vine, by its location, by mother nature: not by man. Roumier has turned his back on weedkilling sprays, preferring to plow the vines..but an ancillary benefit where it is done is that the roots are encouraged to penetrate deeper.

By 1982, Christophe Roumier and his father Jean-Marie became partners to jointly manage the Domaine George Roumier. CC

HENRI JAYER

This is the most extensive and extraordinary offering of wines by Henri Jayet ever to appear at auction.

Now in the twilight of his career, Henri Jayer, the modest genius of Burgundy, has attained the fame that he neither had nor sought as a younger winemaker. Allen Meadows published an article about Jayer in the Burghound Newsletter Issue 13 in 2004 which is worth quoting at length here. About the Jayer method:

Jayer describes it as follows:

"Pune short and ruthlessly sort. There is no substitute for low yields and anyone who says otherwise is kidding themselves. I never did like chemicals and I insisted on plowing to remove weeds and I learned that my vines were stronger because plowing cuts the surface roots. Anti-rot treatments were introduced in 1980 and they work pretty well as long as one uses them only when necessary. And no, we don't do any bio-dynamic farming, which in my view is blatant idiocy. As to the winemaking, we cold macerate for up to a week depending on the vintage but we're not Accad in either degree or intent as we use far less SO<sub>2</sub>. I ferment, completely naturally of course, until the sugar is gone and then rack into 100% new oak barrels that I order with medium toast. I have always chosen my barrels by smell alone and the provenance of the wood was never a high priority; it's the treatment that counts. I also never pre-treat my barrels either; no rinsing, no salt solutions, no nothing. I am extremely careful during the élevage as here is where the quality of the wine can be lost or diminished through sloppy practices. After 18 months in a typical vintage, we bottle by hand and cask by cask. Until 1990, I used to fine with egg whites but I was always adamantly against filtering. I want to make sure that my wines taste as good in bottle as they do from barrel so whenever possible, I let the wines make themselves. In fact, nothing in the world is easier than making wine".

I remarked to Jayner that his method was logical but that there was nothing unique in what he was saying. I also noted that he had freely shared his approach with any number of aspiring young winemakers yet no one had yet really approached the quality of the Jayner wines, at least not consistently. So, I had to ask, what was the secret? Jayner, ever modest yet quietly proud of his accomplishments, simply said, “well, there might be a secret or two that I haven’t mentioned. But much more important than a small trick or two is that you have to feel your wines. There’s an art to it and that’s something that you can’t teach anymore than a painter or musician can teach a student by showing him how to draw or read music. In short, it’s a gift.”

However, he was quick to point out that anyone can do quality élevage, observing “how many wines do you see that are prematurely brown? Too many. Have you ever seen one of my wines, when properly stored, that has turned? And the reason is that I treat all of my wines, from the Bourgogne to the Cros as though they were babies in need of tender loving care. I never pump and I never expose them to oxygen except during a racking and the hand bottling never upsets their equilibrium.”

RICHEBOURG HENRI JAYER 1959

The bottles offered below are from a numbered series of 36 bottles recently sold by Jayer from his personal collection. Burghound notes in Issue 13:

Jayer sold his production to various négociants for years though he bottled bits and pieces for himself in some vintages. The oldest bottle in Jaye's cellar today is a 1959 Richebourg and he does occasionally release older wines into the market.

The two magnums of 1978 Richebourg offered below were purchased from an American collector who bought a case directly from Henri Jayer and hand carried it to the U.S.

RICHEBOURG HENRI JAYER 1978

Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru

1.5cm, bin-soiled label, capsule cut

"Absolutely stunningly complex nose of virtually every spice imaginable framed in earth and strong secondary aromas leads to full-bodied, rich, pure and still intense flavors that deliver fantastic depth and length. While this is still a spectacular drink, the beginning of the end has arrived as there is the slightest hint of dryness on the finish though it is largely buffered by the impressive amounts of velvet. Classy and refined in every sense and while this is in no danger of cracking up anytime soon, I would begin looking for reasons to drink this over the next decade." Burghound 1/05.

HENRI JAYER FOR GEORGE JAYER

For years Henri Jayer has been making wines for his brother Georges under the label 'H Jayer for G Jayer'. Henri tends the vines which are contiguous to his own and makes this wine from those grapes that Georges owns. Though the label bears Georges' name, this wine is in reality, another label for Henri Jayer.

CROS PARANTOUX JAYER

In 1951, Jaye acquired his first parcel of vines in Cros Parantoux from a M. Roblot. Jaye explained in great detail how difficult it was to clear the brush and artichokes away, saying “the rocks were huge, the size of cars and we had to dynamite them. I used over 400 charges to soften up the soil enough to plant vines. And the artichoke roots were such a pain and they continued to be a problem for years afterwards”. Jaye did not actually plant vines until 1953 because “it was so hard and time consuming to clear the land and run the domaine that replanting had to wait”. Coincidentally, he also applied for Cros Parantoux to be upgraded to official premier cru status and in an act of surprising speed by the regulators, he received approval the same year. He continued to buy what he could until he bought the last available parcel from Robert Arnoux’s sister in 1970, which made his 71.5 are parcel the size it is today.

Jaye candidly admits that he worked Cros Parantoux by horse “not because I wanted to but because I had to. The age of the horse in Burgundy is not an ancient practice the way everyone romantically believes. In fact, the age of the horse in Burgundy came about after World War I, after the army sold off literally tens of thousands of horses because they no longer had a use for them. The period really only lasted from 1918 to 1960 and died out pretty quickly after that. In fact, I was the first vigneron in Vosne to buy a tractor and that was in 1956. I had two horses that I used for years but by 1970, that was pretty much it for horses in Burgundy. Oh sure, you still see a few today but with few exceptions, it’s for the media not because it’s really necessary”. Burghound

"This is a famous wine and I was fortunate enough to taste it again at Comme Chez Soi in Brussels in March 2001. The color was a youthful bright deep red-violet. My nose was greeted by an avalanche of fresh ripe cherry aromas energized by a hint of citric zest, and sensed a touch of buttery oak and earth trying to climb out from underneath. The cherry-dominated flavors had sensational purity and focus. Great. Outstanding plus." FH.

"Jayer opened this wine during our lunch and it showed substantially better than did the bottle at the tasting; in fact, it stood toe to toe with the '85 Cros that he opened – in fact, I marginally preferred the '78 because of its superior richness. The bottle that Jaye opened was brilliantly complex with a classic aged burg nose of earth, damp leaves and with no trace of sous bois followed by velvety, incredibly seductive flavors offering stupendous richness, fantastic complexity and knock out length. The finish is pure silk with only the subtlest trace of background rusticity that reminds one that this is Nuits and not Vosne." Burghound 1/05.

COMTE GEORGES DE VOGUE

This historical domaine has been in the hands of the same family for over 500 years, and currently the 20th generation is in control. That's an incredible statistic in itself. Recent history is that towards the end of Georges de Vogüé's life the domaine went through a sticky patch in the late 1970s and early 1980s (he died in 1987), but things have since turned around. His daughter Elisabeth de Ladoucette ran things during the late 1980s until 2002, and during this spell the current 'dream team' was put together: she hired Francois Millet as winemaker, Gérard Gaudé as chef de vignes (a position he held for 10 years until succeeded by current viticulturalist Eric Bourgogne in 1996), and Jean-Luc Pépin was given the important job of sales and marketing in 1988. The current incumbents are George's granddaughters Claire de Causans and Marie de Ladoucette.

Michael Broadbent on the 1945 Burgundy vintage:

"A great vintage. Though the war in Europe had ended earlier in the year, labour problems and shortages continued. In the vineyards, the major setback was severe frosts in March and April, otherwise the unaffected vines benefited from a beautiful spring with flowering beginning 20 May (the earliest start between 1940 and 1977) and completed rapidly. On 21 June a sudden and severe cyclone ravaged ten of the principal villages in the Cote de Beaune. The ensuing summer was hot but dry. The result of 'nature's pruning' and low rainfall resulted in a small crop of high quality, concentrated grapes...★★★★★."

CLAUDE DUGAT

For wines of pure hedonistic delight in Burgundy, one has to look no further than Claude Dugat. The wines are made in a 13th century abbey known as Cellier des Dimes. Dugat often uses whole berry fermentation which results in wines of great richness and concentration while still retaining a sense of class.

"The Clos des Lambrays produced legendary wines in the 40's...In the words of Michel Bettane, the Clos des Lambrays is an extraordinary terroir, capable of giving wines that, in generosity of savour and length rival the greatest. It is, as Brouin pointed out to me, and shows on the palate, the most "Morey" of all the Grand Crus of that appellation—the terroir really comes through..."

There are few finer domains in the Cote d'Or than that of Armand Rousseau...this 14 hectare estate can boast some of the finest sites in the northern part of the Cote. DOMAINE LEROY

Maison Leroy was founded in 1868 by Francois Leroy in the small village of Auxey-Duresses...Henri Leroy entered the family business in 1919 and expanded the portfolio of Leroy to include eau-de-vie at Gensac La Pallue, establishing a distillery near Segonzac. During the 1930's he became a valued customer of Domaine de la Romanee Conti (DRC) and a close friend with its co-owner Edmond Gaudin de Villaine. It seems hard to believe now, but at that time many winemakers were impoverished and it seemed inevitable that the owners would be forced to sell its monopole holdings. In 1942, the other co-owner Jacques Chambon sold his share to Henri Leroy, which meant that the DRC could continue unchanged, although it was not until the 1950's that he took a hands-on role in its management.

Henri had two daughters the younger of whom Marcelle took a great interest in her father's negociant business that she eventually took over in 1955, by which time she was know by her present name: Lalou. She was just 23 years old: ambitious, temperamental, pugnacious and gifted...

In April 1988 she had acquired significant holding (around 12 hectares) of prime vineyard from Domaine Charles Noëllat including rows of Grand Cru vines that had been left moribund over many years. Such soil does not come cheap, so she had to find financial backing, which came from the Far East, the Japanese company Takashimaya. Lalou had the bit between her teeth and in the following year augmented her acquisition with vines from Domaine Philippe Remy that included prize plots in Chambertin and Clos-de-la-Roche...

During the 1990's, the wines of Domaine Leroy became some of the most sought after not only in Burgundy but in the world. With Robert Parker enamoured with her plethora of climats, many of which are produced in miniscule quantities (we are talking literally one or two barrels here) it was inevitable that prices spiralled into the stratosphere. The tiny quantities were not only a result of the small acreage, but of Lalou's draconian practices of minimizing yields to unprecedented low quantities - often less the 20hl/hc, through rigorous pruning and sorting in the vineyard and the fact that many plots of vines are between 50 and 80 years old.

MEO-CAMUZET

The Meo Camuzet domaine produces indisputably two star wines, and even in Vosne-Romanee, where there is no lack of competition, it is among the top handful of leading estates. But its fame is recent, as until 1983 everything was sold off in bulk. Only recently has the domaine been responsible for the produce of the majority of its vines, for these were leased off on a share-cropping basis. For forty years the metayars not only tended the fields but made the wine. But since 1988 these leases have slowly but surely begun to come to their end, and it was in this vintage that the Domaine Meo-Camuzet began to market the entirety of its share of the crop in bottle. #### DUGAT-PY

Dugat-Py, this is a small domaine whose marvelous vaulted cellar was once the crypt of the church of a leprosarium. Bernard Dugat has now taken over completely from his father Pierre, under whose label old bottles can still be found, and is now selling less and less en vrac. A small amount of the stems is retained, the wine vinified at a maximum of 32 C, and the top wines are reared in 50-100 per cent new oak. There is minimal racking, no fining and no filtration. The wines have an old-vine, minimum-yield concentration, are abundantly fruity and very stylish and well balanced. A high-class establishment presided over by a charming couple. CC

EMMANUEL ROUGET

Emmanuel Rouget, a tractor engineer by training, was given a job by his uncle, the legendary Henri Mayer, in 1976. Uncle Henri instilled an unbridled enthusiasm and knowledge of winemaking in his young nephew and in 1985 Emmanuel set up on his own operating out of cellars in Flagey. He took on vines from Henri's brother, Lucien, in Echézeaux and Vosne-Romanée on a share cropping basis, which in effect meant that Emmanuel worked the vines and vinified the wine, and then gave half the wine to Uncle Lucien, while keeping the other half for himself.

By 1996 Emmanuel was producing wines from the vineyards of three of his uncles - Henri, Lucien and Georges, as well as from the vineyards of the Michelin star chef, Jean Crottet. By and large, Emmanuel has remained faithful to the techniques employed by Henri Mayer - namely an insistence on ultra low yields, a pre-fermentation cold maceration and the maturation of the wines in 100% new oak barrels. His wines are now very highly rated and keenly sought-after by connoisseurs worldwide.

JACQUES FREDERIC MUGNIER

The wines made by Jacques Frederic Mugnier are some of the best being made in Burgundy today. For some, his wines are the quintessential expression of the Chambolle Musigny appellation. The wines are usually fully destemmed, given less than a week long maceration, and given a long cuvaizon of several weeks. The wines see around 20% new oak without being fined or filtered. The result is a clean and ripe textbook example of Chambolle. Lacy finesse and delicacy with great intensity of flavors.

DOMAINE DUJAC

There are Burgundy domaines which are long established and long renowned, having estate-bottled for fifty years or more. There are others which have only recently become stars, because it is only in the last decade that they have themselves bottled a significant portion of their produce, though they might have been producing wine for generations. And there is a third category: domaines which have been created from scratch. Of these, none has had such a meteoric rise to super-stardom as the Domaine Dujac in Morey-Saint-Denis. It is only thirty years since Jacques Seysses first arrived to work in Burgundy...but the quality of the Seysses wine was recognised from the outset. And the reputation of Domaine Dujac has not looked back since...

Today the Domaine Dujac covers 11.5 hectares and produces eleven appellations...What I like about the Dujac wines is their purity...These are wines of lightish colour but intense fruit, and great elegance and definition. They are very individual, with a particular style which is only echoed elsewhere...Thirty years' experience has proved that this is a style which is enthusiastically appreciated throughout the world. A deserved success. A very fine domaine.

DOMAINE ROBERT GROFFIER

Robert Groffier is the leading grower in Morey-Saint-Denis who doesn't have a single vine in the commune, and happens to be the biggest land holder in Chambolle Musigny, Les Amoureuses. Robert Groffier is like his wine...Groffier is self-effacing, gentle, pacific. His wines are soft but intense, elegant but understated, delicate and subtle...

From the 1930's onward, the Groffier history and estate was built by Frederic Groffier's son Jules (1898-1974). He acquired Amouresuses, Bonnes Mares and Hauts Doix from a firm of negociants called Peloux. In 1960 he passed the inheritance to his three children Madame Gerard Peirazeau (whose share has always been sold off in bulk) and the rest to his sons Robert and Jean-Claude. Jean-Claude was not as interested in the vine and the inheritance, and sold off his shares to Robert... Today Robert, who is in charge of the cellar, is assisted by his son Serge, who does most of the vineyard work. And Madame Groffier is in charge of the accounts.

Groffier makes only 7 or 8 barrels of Chambertin Clos de Beze in a good year...In Amouresuses, Robert owns 1.12 hectares made up of adjoining sections on slightly different levels, with twenty-six years old vines. In Bonnes Mares, Groffier owns one hectare of thirty-six year old vines next to plots of his sister and Georges Lignier toward the Morey end of the climat...This is a top domaine, and the wines have all the elegance and purity of Pinot Noir that you would wish. LOUIS JADOT

Founded in 1859. It is one of the largest and most important of Beaune's negociants. Today, their domaine consists of 70 hectares, including Domaine Clair-Dau in Marsannay, which they acquired in 1985. CC

Managed by three generations of the Jadot family and then by Mr. André Gagey for more than 30 years, Maison Louis Jadot is now directed by his son Mr. Pierre Henry Gagey, assisted by Mr. Jacques Lardière, who has been Louis Jadot's wine maker for more than 20 years.

For Lardiere there are only a few simple rules and only one single object. The object is the expression of the terroir, whether that of a humble Santenay or a grand Clos de Beze. The way to achieve this is an illogical (on the face of it) mixture of interfering as little as possible and being prepared to take risks. Some of the things he does would be shot to bits by the teachers of any wine school.

He would be equally criticized for not doing a lot of what he doesn't do...This is a man of passion and sensuality. Wine for him is part of the magic of life. Wine is made by God, but too often screwed up by the ignorant human, he once said to me. 'Look at all the boring wines,' he says. 'Many of them are technically impeccable, but they have no soul, no personality in them... I sometimes wonder if the people who make them ever taste them. You must use your tastebuds, your imagination, your intelligence. Not a rule book!' And look at all the Jadot wines, you could reply. They are not all perfect. But on the scale that they are made the overall quality is remarkable, mind-boggling even. Jadot are lucky to have him. And, as customers, so too are we. CC

"...is a new star in the Cote d'Or firmament. Formerly a pastry chef, and with the girth to prove it, he was bitten by the wine bug, moved to Nuits, and set about buying up the odd cask here and there from some of the leading growers in the Cote de Nuits. Quantities are miniscule, the approach is determinedly 'hands off', and the wines are for those who like lots of oak (Laurent often racks from new to new, i.e. to give his wines, as he puts it, '200 per cent' new oak)...but the results are undeniably pure, concentrated and of high quality..." # Buying & Bidding Information

CONDITIONS OF SALE & LIMITED WARRANTY

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Conditions of Sale & Limited Warranty contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of wine sold at auction. By participating in an auction, an auction participant agrees to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and Limited Warranty, printed in this catalog.

ESTIMATES

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable wines. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices. Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys Wine Auctions wine specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

BUYERS PREMIUM

An 18% Buyer's Premium will be added to the successful bid price of each lot you purchase and is payable by you, together with the applicable sales tax which is applied to the total cost of your purchase, as stated in the Conditions of Sale located in this catalog.

RESERVES

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys Wine Auctions and the consignor. This confidential amount is the value below which a lot will not be sold. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot. If any lot in the catalog is not subject to a reserve, the lot will be identified by the symbol (▲) next to the lot number.

EXAMINATION OF WINES

Prospective Buyers are invited by appointment to examine any lots prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse. Please contact our specialists at 914.448.3026 to set up an appointment.

BIDDER REGISTRATION

Prospective Buyers are asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid any delay in the release of purchases, please pre-arrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at 914.874.8039. All bidders who wish to attend the auction are asked to pre-register for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction.

If you plan to attend the auction, a Pre-Registration form is provided in this catalog or online at www.zachys.com. Please complete the requested information and fax the form to Dick Trauner at 914.472.6390 at least two days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the sale to retrieve an auction paddle.

BIDDING

Wine lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from those present in the saleroom or absentee bidders participating by telephone or by written bid left with Zachys Wine Auctions at least 24 hours prior to the first day of the auction. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the consignor's reserve, however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the consignor.

PARCEL LOTS

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type of, quantity and bottle size. In this sale the buyer of the first lot of a parcel of wine will have, at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer.

ABSENTEE BIDS

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys Wine Auctions instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Our representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential.

PLEASE NOTE: Zachys Wine Auctions offers this service as a convenience to clients, and although we will make every effort, Zachys Wine Auctions will not be held responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

PLACING ABSENTEE BIDS

To place an absentee bid, please use the absentee bid form provided in this catalog or online at www.zachys.com. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, we will round your bid down to the lower increment. Please place your bids as soon as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence.

PLACING TELEPHONE BIDS

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the sale provided that bids are accepted only at Zachys Wine Auctions discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys Wine Auctions must confirm arrangements for this service as soon as possible and at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys Wine Auctions discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above $2,000. At Zachys Wine Auctions discretion, telephone bids may be recorded. By bidding on the telephone, prospective purchasers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale & Limited Warranty.

SALES TAX

Purchases picked up or delivered within the state of New York or California are subject to sales or compensating use tax. Buyers are required to pay any state and local sales and use tax which may be due, as well as any applicable use tax of another state which Zachys Wine Auctions may be required by law to collect. New York or California sales tax is charged on the successful bid price, Buyer's Premium, and any other applicable charges on any other property picked up or delivered in New York State or California, regardless of the state or country in which the Buyer resides or transacts business, unless Buyer has a valid exemption there from. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of payment of the purchase price. Buyers claiming exemption from sales or use tax must provide Zachys Wine Auctions with documentation, which, in Zachys Wine Auctions opinion, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages, or who hold New York State

Liquor Authority Licenses or California ABC licenses, must submit Resale Certificates and copies of their valid New York State Liquor License or California ABC licenses to Zachys Wine Auctions prior to the release of property. All questions regarding sales tax and exemptions should be directed to Dick Trauner at 914.874.8039.

If Zachys Wine Auctions is selling lots as agent for an organization, which holds a State of New York or California Exempt Organization Certificate, the lot will be marked with the symbol (*). Accordingly, no sales tax is due on the purchase price of any of the foregoing lots if the wine is picked up or delivered in the State of New York or California. It is the Buyer's responsibility to ascertain and pay all taxes due.

OWNED OR GUARANTEED PROPERTY

Zachys Wine Auctions offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys Wine Auctions. These lots are identified with the symbol (■) next to the lot number. On rare occasions Zachys Wine Auctions may guarantee a minimum price to the consignor of property. Such lots are identified in the catalog by the symbol (◆) next to the lot number. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

SUCCESSFUL BID

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility of the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus 18% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

PAYMENT

Buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days of the auction. Payments received after this deadline will be subject to a 1.5% per month late charge. Payment can be made by credit card, check, cash, money order or bank wire transfer. To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, potential Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction. Buyers wishing to make payment by credit card must present the card in person at or prior to the auction. All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys Wine Auctions and the applicable credit card company. Zachys Wine Auctions will accept Visa, MasterCard and American Express. In the event a charge is not approved, Buyers nevertheless remain liable for all amounts owed. Credit card purchases may not exceed $20,000. Buyers wishing to pay for purchases via wire transfer should direct funds to:
JPMorgan Chase Bank
White Plains, NY
Acct# 590 407406
ABA# 021000021

COLLECTION OF PURCHASES

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Please refer to the page on Collection & Delivery of Wine in the catalog for specific collection information in this catalog.

SHIPPING & COLLECTION

For your convenience, Zachys Wine Auctions Collection & Delivery Form is located in this catalog. It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. After payment has been received, we can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance and shipping at the Buyers expense and request.

EXPORT/IMPORT PERMITS

Wine sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the US and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting wine. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the import of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

DELIVERY RESTRICTIONS

Bidders are also reminded that various states impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another state, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys Wine Auctions shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation nor bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining any permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all bidders are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the state so as to comply with all local requirements.

Additional Catalog Notes for Bidders

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- BN BOTTOM NECK: perfectly good for any age of wine. Outstandingly good for a wine of 10 years in bottle, or longer.
- TS TOP SHOULDER: normal for any claret 15 years old or older.
- US UPPER-SHOULDER: slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Usually no problem. Acceptable for any wine over 20 years old. Exceptional for pre-1940 wines.
- MS MID-SHOULDER: probably some weakening of the cork and some risk. Not abnormal for wines 30/40 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS LOW-SHOULDER: risky and usually only accepted for sale if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting. Always offered without reserve and with low estimate.

Because of the slope of shoulder it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as mid-shoulder, etc. Wherever appropriate the level between cork and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy is less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7 cm. ullage in a 50-year-old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for age, 3.5 to 4 cm. excellent for age, even 7 cm. rarely a risk.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment.

We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines and Zachys Wine Auctions assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery except under the terms of warranty stated in Paragraph 10 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are chateau bottled.

Important note regarding opening of cases and listing levels. It is Zachys Wine Auctions general policy to open all wood cases prior to the 1985 vintage and to describe levels. Bidders must make allowances for reasonable variations in ullage, which may be encountered, in unopened cases from the 1985 vintage and later. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate to age.

Lots which include original wooden case are marked owc. Lots which include original case are marked oc.

Conditions of Sale & Limited Warranty

These Conditions of Sale & Limited Warranty, together with any Glossary which may appear in these catalog pages, are Zachys Wine Auctions and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale & Limited Warranty and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys Wine Auctions as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1

The authenticity of property listed in the catalog is guaranteed only as stated herein and otherwise all property is sold "AS IS" without any representations or warranties by Zachys Wine Auctions or the Consignor as to merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog, description, size, quality, condition, rarity, importance, provenance, exhibition history, literature, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property. No statement set forth in this catalog, made at the auction or in the bill of sale, posting, announcement or otherwise, whether oral or written, shall be deemed such a warranty, representation or assumption of liability. Zachys Wine Auctions and the Consignor make no representations and warranties, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. Neither Zachys Wine Auctions nor the Consignor is responsible for errors or omissions in the catalog, glossary or any supplemental material. Prospective bidders are invited to inspect the property before bidding.

2

The purchase price payable by the Buyer will be the sum of the final bid price plus the Buyer's Premium, together with any applicable sales or compensating use tax. The Buyer's Premium is 18% of the final bid price.

3

Zachys Wine Auctions reserves the right to withdraw any property before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal.

4

Zachys Wine Auctions reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys Wine Auctions' sale record is conclusive.

5

Although at Zachys Wine Auctions' discretion, Zachys Wine Auctions may execute absentee bids (written bids left with Zachys Wine Auctions prior to the sale) or may accept telephone bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction, Zachys Wine Auctions is not responsible for failing to execute such bids or for any errors or omissions in connection therewith.

6

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept and below which the lot will not be sold. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low pre-sale estimate. Lots not subject to a reserve are identified with the symbol (▲) next to the lot number. Zachys Wine Auctions shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7

Title to the offered lot passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale. The Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot and shall immediately pay the full purchase price or such part, as Zachys Wine Auctions, in our sole discretion, requires.

8

No lot may be removed from Zachys Wine Auctions premises until the Buyer has paid the purchase price in full plus all other fees and taxes and has satisfied such terms, as Zachys Wine Auctions, in our sole discretion, shall require. Upon receipt of payment, Zachys Wine Auctions will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys Wine Auctions to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30pm of the fourteenth calendar day following the sale, and removed from Zachys Wine Auctions' premises at the Buyer's expense no later than 30 days after the date of sale. If payment is not made within 14 days of purchase, Zachys Wine Auctions reserves the right to a late charge of up to 1½% per month of the total purchase price, in addition to any other rights and remedies available by law to Zachys Wine Auctions. If not so removed, Zachys Wine Auctions may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of the Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 30 days of the date of sale and Zachys Wine Auctions does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, the Buyer will be liable to Zachys Wine Auctions for storage and handling charges of $1.75 per day for each lot.

9

Zachys Wine Auctions is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by us. Packing and handling of purchased lots are at the entire risk of the Buyer. If Zachys Wine Auctions arranges and bills for such services via invoice or credit card, Zachys Wine Auctions will include an administration charge.

If the Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, the Buyer will be in default and Zachys Wine Auctions may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the purchase price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without reserve at public auction or privately on seven days' notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without reserve at public or privately on seven days' notice to such Buyer and (v) take such other action as Zachys Wine Auctions deem necessary or appropriate. If Zachys Wine Auctions resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the purchase price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the purchase price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys Wine Auctions shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys Wine Auctions, in our sole discretion, deem appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted us a security interest in, and Zachys Wine Auctions may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to us, any property in our possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys Wine Auctions shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code adopted in the state where the auction is held.

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until we have collected good funds. In the event the Buyer fails to pay any or all of the total purchase price for any lot and Zachys Wine Auctions nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, the Buyer acknowledges that Zachys Wine Auctions shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 days of receipt of the wine, Zachys Wine Auctions has received from the original Buyer of any property notice of a claim in writing that any lot is short or has suffered breakage, then Zachys Wine Auctions in their sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and the Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund the purchase price received.

The benefits of this provision are not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or other who have or may acquire an interest therein.

The Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys Wine Auctions and the Consignor under this provision shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original purchase price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to the Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys Wine Auctions, nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any special, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

11

The respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone or other means, the Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State of New York. The Buyer expressly agrees that (i) neither Zachys Wine Auctions nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any special, indirect or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits, and (ii) the Buyer's damages are limited exclusively to the original purchase price paid for the lot.

12

All offers and sales of wine by Zachys Wine Auctions are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state that the auction takes place.

13

New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age.

14

Zachys Wine Auctions does not ship wines. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys Wine Auctions may arrange to have property packed, insured and shipped at Buyers expense, but Zachys Wine Auctions shall have no liability or obligation for shipping wines. Most states regulate the shipment of wines into their state. Some states require a Buyer, Consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits, while other states have a strict prohibition on such shipments. In addition, various states impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages, which may be purchased and brought into its jurisdiction from another state. Zachys Wine Auctions makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, as to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverages into any state. Zachys Wine Auctions urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the wine shipping laws and regulations of the state to which they intend the wine to be shipped prior to the purchase of wines at auction.

Some states require a purchaser, consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits, while other states have a strict prohibition on such shipments.
